The Rebel Hope

Ever since the war commenced, the rebels have relied more upon the strength of the Democratic party in the North to effect their independence and the perpetuity of their accursed institutions, than upon the armies they have raised to contest the question with Federal troops That they had reason for dependence upon their friends in the free States is as true as that Franklin Pierce and his political kindred had an opportunity of perjuring themselves, while misdirecting affairs of our Government It is no new idea that the Democratic party leaders are the firm allies of Jeff Davis The promise has been made—and observed with a religious scrupulousness truly surprising considering the depravity of the parties to the contract—to create through a political organization in the free States a diversion in favor of the rebels How well that promise has been kept is proven upon the bloodiest page of our country s history We are satisfied that many persons calling themselves Democrats and who have hitherto labored zealously, for the success of their party, have done so under the impression that the only way of subjugating the rebels, perpetuating the Union, and ending the war, was by elevating to place sound Democrats They cannot understand that their party today is simply an engine for the destruction of the Government, the dissemination of bloody treason We ask the consideration of all such to the following from the Richmond Examiner, which as the organ of treason, has a right to understand the relations which exist between the Northern Democracy and their Southern masters. If any honest Union man can continue his allegiance to the Democratic party after reading what is expected of it he must certainly be a fit candidate for Bedlam

In that case who will be the next President in the enemy s country? Not Fremont with his radical abolition The era for that school of politics will be past But there remains another party—the Democrats they being also divided at present into War Democrats and Peace Democrats, but who would all be Peace Democrats in the event of a total failure of the Federal campaign of 1864 Now the very latest intelligence brought us from that country by a special channel informs us of these two further facts that the popular mind became at once violently agitated on the announcement of this Baltimore nomination, and that in Maryland, especially, disturbance was apprehended In fact, the Democrats of the North who have waited four years, not too patiently trusting to regain the power and profit which they but lately held to be a Democratic inheritance, must naturally be provoked beyond endurance at this audacious attempt of Lincoln and Seward to ride rough shod over them four years more We learn that the Democrats are now universally turning their thoughts to Frank in Pierce and the Connecticut Seymour as their nominees for President and Vice President To give them the least chance of electing those two advocates of peace, Grant must be defeated the invasion must collapse and die out and the very name of war must become a word of horror, uttered with loathing and execration Therefore it is the interest of the Democrats to do their very utmost to weaken the Federal army discredit Federal finance in short to extinguish the war altogether, in order to extinguish the party which invented the war and governs it and lives by it The last significant fact which comes to us by special advices is that immediately on the Baltimore nomination, gold rose to one hundred and ninety seven Gold is a sensitive substance, and it feels another shiver and shrinks back yet a little more into its crypts, at the idea of another four years of Lincoln and Chase, and those dreadful paper mills and steampresses the smoke of whose fatal machinery ascendeth up for ever and ever Here then are elements of trouble and storm which happily threaten to interfere not only with Lincoln s election but with the peace of Yankee society Before November the whole North may be writhing in intestine convulsion her brute mass now pressing us so heavily may be flung off and this Confederacy may be standing erect redeemed, radiant triumphant shaking her invincible locks in the sun

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY —The examination at this institution closed at 10 o'clock, Wednesday The classes in Moral Science and Geology did themselves great credit The Geology class manifested not only a good knowledge of the text book, but also considerable skill by the manner in which they exposed the false positions of a "critical" individual who attempted to bother them The music was excellent, and everything connected with the exercises gave general satisfaction The Commencement Exercises came off Thursday afternoon at the M E Church in Salem

TALL RYE AND GOOD WHEAT —Mr Prettyman, of Polk county has left at the Statesman office some stalks of wheat and rye that are of uncommon growth, the rye measuring eight feet The heads of wheat are large and the berry uncommonly plump.

CONVICTED —John W Patten and Charles Baggs, convicted of burglary were sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary by the circuit court of Oregon for Wasco county on Thursday last

The Masons of Salem are taking initiatory steps towards the formation of a stock company for the erection of a Masonic Hall.

TERRITORY OF MONTANA —Below will be found the boundaries of the new Territory of Montana, as defined by an act of Congress It will be perceived by reference to the map that the whole of Bitter Root Valley and the headwaters of Clark s Fork of the Columbia river almost to its lake mouth, are embraced within the new division, barely leaving Pend d'Oreille Lake, in Washington Territory Virginia City is located very nearly in the centre of Montana and being surrounded by the rich mines with a large population, will doubtless be the Territorial capital It is accessible from the different important points in the Territory by low passes in the mountains and will ultimately be the place for distribution of merchandise It is evident that the boundaries of the Territory have been varied from parallel on account of comprehending all that section which must receive supplies from East via Fort Benton and Yellowstone river leaving Idaho and the adjacent western Territory to be supplied from this side

Commencing at a point formed by the intersection of the twenty seventh degree of longitude west from Washington with the forty fifth degree of north latitude thence due west on said forty fifth degree of latitude to a point formed by its intersection with the thirty fourth degree of longitude west from Washington thence due south along said thirty fourth degree of longitude to its intersection with the forty fourth degree and thirty minutes of north latitude, thence due west along said forty fourth degree and thirty minutes of north latitude to a point formed by its intersection with the crest of the Rocky mountains, thence following the crest of the Rocky mountains northward till its intersection with the Bitter Root mountains, thence northward along the crest of said Bitter Root mountains to its intersection with the thirty ninth degree of longitude west from Washington thence along said thirty ninth degree of longitude northward to the boundary line of the British possessions thence eastward along said boundary line to the twenty seventh degree of longitude west from Washington thence southward along said twenty seventh degree of longitude to the place of beginning being and the same is hereby created into a temporary government by the name of the Territory of Montana

THE BLOOD OF MARTYRS THE SEED OF THE CHURCH —The blood of traitors, the foundation of a stable government—or in the language of the patriot christian, the Rev Dr Breckenridge, "no government has ever stood upon irresistible foundations, which foundations were not built on traitors' blood" The wicked must atone with blood for the depravity of mankind The ambition of aspiring Devils must be squelched that the principles of a christian government may expand and cover the earth Such was the theme of Dr Breckinridge's address before the Baltimore Union Convention The Doctor said

Dreadful as they are, these fearful truths run through the whole history of mankind, that whatever else may be done to give stability to an authority—whatever else may be done to give perpetuity to institutions, however wise, however glorious—and whatever may be the philosophy of it, it has been found the only imperishable element of all institutions has been the blood of traitors

No government has ever stood upon irresistible foundations which foundations were not built on traitors blood It is a fearful truth but we had as well avow it at once Every blow you strike and every rebel you kill, and every battle you win, reluctant as we are to do it, is adding a decade, it may be a century it may be ten centuries to the perpetuity of your Government and the freedom of your children

Again they tell us that the Democratic party of to day is not the Democratic party which so gloriously and successfully ruled the country for half a century Where then is that party? Who have inherited its archives and traditions —Democratic Press

Well, responds the Appeal, a part of the party is under Confederate Generals fighting for a dissolution of the Union. Another fragment of the Democratic party known as Copperheads and Secessionists, are engaged in the Northern States giving aid and comfort to the Secessionists Another large fraction of the old Democratic party is in the army of the Government, fighting and killing their late Democratic brethren Another fraction may be found in the Union party, nobly sustaining the Government through the ballot box As to the inheritors of the archives and traditions of the party Where are they? Can they be in the custody of open traitors and silent sympathizers with the rebellion? The consciences of these hypocrates tell them, no

NEW STEAMSHIP LINE —The New York correspondent of a San Francisco paper says it was intimated in business circles of New York, that a new steamship company had been formed with a capital of $4,000,000, for a line via the Isthmus to San Francisco and another line from the latter point direct to China The old Panama Steamship Company's stock has at one time reached 302—more than 300 per cent on their capital of $4,000,000

A SECRET TREATY —The Paris correspondent of the London Globe, writes as follows

Current gossip insists on the existence of a secret article in the conventions between the French and the Mexican Emperor in virtue of which previous to the final evacuation of the Gulf territory by the legions of Gaul, they are to be concentrated toward the Pacific, but in occupancy of the Sonora district, including the harbor of Acapulco, ostensibly as a reserve force in case of aggression from North America, but in reality to lay a ground work for permanent annexation to France of that metalliferous tract which all the local Governments in succession have never hitherto turned to any account

SKELETON OF A MASTODON DISCOVERED IN MICHIGAN —A correspondent of the Detroit Tribune, writing from Adrian, Michigan says that Uriah Decker a farmer near that town had discovered the remains of a mastodon while digging a ditch in a field Nearly all the bones have been discovered—including the skull, greatly damaged, all but one of the large leg bones, one of the smaller leg bones, a number of ribs, some nearly perfect, and others not far from it a broken tusk and its mate, several remarkably perfect teeth, shoulder and hip bones in good preservation, vertebræ and foot bones knee caps and supplementary bones in great variety The teeth were in wonderful preservation, the crown of the molar teeth presenting conical tubercles covered with enamel The enamel is still perfect

"In the arsenal at Venice is shown a curious dressing case containing six small cannons which are so adjusted as to explode on the opening of the case This is said to have been sent as a present to the Contessa Sforza by Francesco Carrara the last lord of Padua famous or rather infamous for his cruelties The unfortunate lady, little suspecting the nature of the cadeau, hastily touching the spring by which the box was opened and immediately fell, shot through the heart

PLAIN TALK FROM A BRITISH CONSUL —The British Consul at Buffalo has addressed the following expressive letter to a drafted man who claimed exemption as a British subject

BRITISH CONSULATE
Buffalo N Y May 31 1864

Richard Fitzgerald Barracks [illegible] New York —I am in receipt of your letter of the 27th inst complaining of the conduct of the military authorities at Elmira in regard to the manner in which you have been treated

I have to inform you that on the 20th inst I received a letter from your wife stating that you had been arrested and writing of you she says, "They will find him because he is a voter He never voted until at the [illegible] meeting" I must also point out to you that in the face of the evidence furnished by your wife you have committed perjury and if I had not been misled by your false swearing, I should never for an instant have endeavored to protect you from the conscription

In voting you have assumed the character of an American citizen and you will now have to abide the consequences I have written to your wife May 30 to inform her that you have forfeited all claim to the protection of her Majesty s servants in this country You have contracted an obligation toward the Government of the United States by voting for your own ease and comfort you will find that the best thing you can do now is to make up your mind to fulfill the obligations you have been placed under by the military authorities and by doing so quietly and peacefully you will find that in the long run you have saved yourself from much misery and suffering

A COUSIN OF SECRETARY CHASE MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD —A correspondent of the Brooklyn Union of June 11th says "The remains of Arthur L Chase, late a Lieutenant in the Eighth New York Artillery, passed through New York city this morning on the way to Lockport (N Y), the residence of his parents, for interment The circumstances of the death of this brave and noble boy are of such a character that they may well be put on record with the many other acts of disgraceful barbarity which will remain in the future as just exponents of the character of the rebellion, its cause, and its abettors He died in Washington on the morning of the 8th instant, in the Armory Square Hospital and after his death a memorandum was found in one of his pockets, in his own handwriting, which states that he had been wounded, disabled, and had fallen on the battle field, and that while in this helpless state he was approached by four rebel soldiers, who shot him through the neck, chest and thigh, placing the muzzles of their guns so near him that his clothing and flesh were burned by their discharge, and are now the witnesses of the truth of this memorandum, which he had strength to make after suffering from the atrocious act" Lieutenant Chase was a cousin of Secretary Chase, and a nephew of Dr Wells, of Brooklyn

RUMORED MASSACRE BY INDIANS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA —The British Colonist of the 20th says

Mr R Sampore, whom Mr Waddington left in charge of his stores at Bute Inlet came down in a canoe night before last bringing the startling rumor that a number of the Bentinck Indian Expedition, who had been employed in conveying provisions from the Arm to the Main body had been attacked at the Great Slide about 50 miles up the trail by Indians who hurled down rocks and logs on them as they were making the ascent, precipitating the whole party into the abyss below! The rumor stated that not one of the party escaped alive The story was brought to Bute by some Coast Indians who communicated it to the Euclataws, from whom it reached Mr Sampore

Mr Sampore also informs us that two Chilcoaten Indians were seen about a month ago lurking in the woods in the vicinity of the town site A dog accompanying them was recognized as belonging to the notorious Tellot" The rascals who were doubtless trying to find out what was going on took to flight when discovered The Indians at Bute had heard nothing of what had taken place in the interior

Inability to Sleep.—After the fatigues of the day's labor, how refreshing and necessary is a quiet sleep! Yet how many are unable to enjoy it! To such, whether the cause be nervous irritability, disordered digestion, or insufficient nutrition, the PERUVIAN SYRUP offers a precious remedy, quieting, strengthening and reorganizing all the powers.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the system; relieve all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. je26d1m

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.

Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

A GREAT INDUSTRIAL FAIR
To be opened in the City of
SAN FRANCISCO,
On the 30th day of August, 1864,

OF SAN FRANCISCO.
The attention of the public is invited to this great display of our skill, industry and enterprise. To explain the objects and results of the Exhibition, of the preparations for holding it, and the regulations for its management, a Circular has been published by the Institute in letter form and widely distributed. It may be seen at any office of Wells, Fargo & Co., at any Post Office, and at many of the country stores, throughout the Pacific States and Territories.
The various Transportation Companies will, with commendable liberality, transport all articles intended exclusively for exhibition, FREE OF CHARGE; and Wells, Fargo & Co., in like manner, will take charge of them.
All articles forwarded should be labeled "For the Industrial Exhibition," and be directed to C. B. POTTER, Agent, and all communications be addressed to

WHAT KILLED HIM!
DR. HALL, IN HIS "JOURNAL OF HEALTH," speaking of the death of Washington Irving asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance!

HE HAD A COLD!
which by some injudicious prescription had been converted into an Asthma. Who gave that prescription or what it was, the outside world may never know." Let me say to Dr Hall, that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.
for that is an article that does not engender heart disease, nor is it productive of any Asthmatic affections. On the contrary, it will cure such affections; and as for Freedom.

A well known [illegible] oration,
Continues [illegible] —
That "All men [illegible] equal"
And [illegible] free!
'Twas to enforce [illegible] trine,
Our fath[ers] [illegible]
And [illegible] their [illegible] defend it,
In blo[od] [illegible]

Thus dearly bought [illegible] freedom,
Thus [illegible] —
But [illegible] cease the struggle
[illegible] millions [illegible] slaves —
[illegible] tremble,
And [illegible]
Of free[dom] mighty [illegible]
That comes in the rear.

Our Nation long has suffered
Its Flag degraded [illegible]
By [illegible]
That [illegible] the soul [illegible] man
Our country was [illegible] free
[illegible] all the world [illegible] ceased,
Meanwhile [illegible]
Four millions were oppressed.

Now changed [illegible] base deception,
And now [illegible]
For [illegible]
Has [illegible] free men [illegible] all
Yes Freedom's Proc[lamation],
Has on our Code engraved,
"No longer in this Nation
Shall any be enslaved!"

Three cheers for noble Lincoln,
For Honest Abe hurrah!
He's made the traitors tremble
By th[is] most righteous law,
His honesty [illegible],
In what he's wisely done,
Endears him to the people
A Second Washington.

So here's to our brave army,
To [illegible] fearless [illegible]
Who always whips the rebels,
And never [illegible]
So while our army's fighting,
We'll freely give [illegible],
To comfort wounded soldiers,
For this is surely right.

God bless our Union army,
Sustain its holy cause,
For now we have learned better,
Than [illegible] enslaving laws —
God bless its wounded soldiers,—
The Country they defend,—
To all [illegible] killed in battle
Prove an Eternal Friend!

Portland, July 21 1864. REUBEN

Patriotism of the Women of the Revolution

An interesting incident, illustrative of female patriotism and activity, is given by Mr. Headley as occurring in the church at Litchfield, Connecticut The Pastor, Judah Champion, was an ardent patriot, and on a certain Sabbath was earnestly preaching and praying for the success of the American arms During the service a messenger arrived, announcing that St Johns—which had been beseiged six weeks, and was regarded as the key to Canada—was taken. "Thank God for the victory!" exclaimed the patriot preacher, and the chorister, clapping his hands, vigorously shouted—"Amen, and amen!"

The communication of the messenger announced that our army was in a suffering condition, destitute of clothing, without stockings or shoes. 'Sorrow and pity took the place of exultation, and generous sympathetic eyes filled with tears on every side. There was scarcely a drye eye among the females of the congregation As soon as the audience was dismissed, they were soon gathered together in excited groups, and it was evident that some scheme was on foot that would not admit of delay The result was, that when the congregation assembled in the afternoon, not a woman was to be seen The men had come to church, but their earnest, noble wives and daughters had taken down their hand cards, drawn forth their spinning wheels, set in motion their looms, while the knitting and sewing needles were plied as they never were before. It was a strange spectacle to see that Puritan Sabbath turned into a day of secular work The pastor was at the meeting-house, performing those duties belonging to the house of God, and the voice of prayer and hymns of praise ascended as usual from devout and solem hearts, but all through the usually quiet streets of Litchfield the humming sound of the spinning wheel, the clash of the shuttle flying to and fro, were heard, making strange harmony with the worship of the sanctuary But let it not be supposed that these noble women had gone to work without the knowledge of their pastor They had consulted with him, and he had given them his sanction and blessing.

"Swimming eyes and heaving bosoms, were over their work, and lips moved in prayer for the destitute and suffering soldier The pastor's wife contributed eleven blankets from her own stores to the collection"

The women of the Revolution were active in their service of relief and comfort to the armies of the country. "The supply of domestic cloth designed for families was in a short time, by the labor of the females converted into coats for the soldiers sheets and blankets were fashioned into shirts, and even the flannels already made up were altered into men's habiliments Such aid was rendered by many whose deeds of disinterested generosity were never known beyond their own immediate neighborhood"

Weights of clocks, pans, dishes, pewter services of plate, then common, were melted by the women and given to the army to be used in defence of freedom.

In 1776, Lafayette passed through Baltimore, and was honored with a public reception In the gayeties of the scene he was seen to be sad. "Why so sad?" said a gay belle "I cannot enjoy these festivities," said Lafayette, "while so many of the poor soldiers are without shirts and other necessaries." "They shall be supplied," responded the fair ladies, and the scenes of the festive hall were exchanged for the service of their needles They immediately made up clothing for the suffering soldiers—one of the ladies cutting out five hundred pairs of pantaloons with her own hands, and superintending the making

In 1780, a cold and dreary winter, when the soldiers greatly suffered, the ladies of Philadelphia formed an industrial Association for the relief of the American army They solicited money, sacrificed their jewelry, and labored with their own hands Mrs Bache daughter of Dr Franklin, was a leading spirit in these patriotic efforts "She conducted us," said a French nobleman, in describing the scene, "into a room filled with work lately finished by the ladies of Philadelphia. It was shirts for the soldiers of Pennsylvania The ladies bought the cloth from their own private purses, and took a pleasure in cutting them out and sewing them together. On each shirt was the name of the married or unmarried lady who made it and they amount to twenty two hundred" "During the cold winter that followed, thousands of poor soldiers in Washington's camp had occasion to bless the women of Philadelphia for these labors of love

Quilp is a great admirer of children, and says he likes the crying ones best A matron, with a baby in her arms, smiled at his odd fancy, and asked him the reason of it "Why, you see, madam," observed Quilp, "I have observed, in well ordered families, as soon as a child cries, they carry him out of the room."

Typographical errors come in odd sometimes The other day we were reading a description of enthusiastic demonstrations at a political gathering, when the type went on with—"The air was rent with the snouts of three thousand people"

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine is [illegible] considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

without a solvent This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth U S Mint, Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly" July 8, 1856, page 70)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism, Neuralgia Nervous Affections Dyspepsia. Bronchitis, etc
